

The French Revolution

The French Revolution

The French Revolution began in 1789 and profoundly reshaped European politics and society. Causes included fiscal crisis, inequality under the Ancien Regime, and Enlightenment ideas about rights and citizenship.

Key events include the Estates-General, the Tennis Court Oath, the storming of the Bastille, and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen.

The Revolution abolished feudal privileges and challenged absolute monarchy, influencing later democratic movements worldwide.